

Name: _____ Date: _____

Capitalization Of Nationality:

Capitalization rules are the guidelines for using upper case letters in the written word. Capitalize the first letter of every sentence; every line of poetry; proper names of persons, places, days; titles of religion, honor or distinction; words of nationality; most words derived from proper names; the letters I and O when used as words; and sometimes other special words or emphatic words, phrases, and clauses.

Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

More students are learning Latin.

Learning Spanish is fun!

The ending letters of many French words are silent.

Louisiana is home to Spanish moss.

Kateri was a Mohawk Indian.

Pocahontas was an Indian, too.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Capitalization Of Nationality:

Capitalization rules are the guidelines for using upper case letters in the written word. Capitalize the first letter of every sentence; every line of poetry; proper names of persons, places, days; titles of religion, honor or distinction; words of nationality; most words derived from proper names; the letters I and O when used as words; and sometimes other special words or emphatic words, phrases, and clauses.

Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

The word Indian is derived from the word indigenous.

Marco Polo went to India on his trip to China.