

Name: _____ Date: _____

Demonstrative Pronouns:

A demonstrative pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun and specifies its antecedent with emphasis. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

this

that these those

This is my car.

That is my home.

These are my shoes.

Those are your shoes.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Demonstrative Pronouns:

A demonstrative pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun and specifies its antecedent with emphasis. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

A demonstrative pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun and specifies its antecedent with emphasis.

The demonstrative pronouns have the same forms for all persons, genders, and cases.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Demonstrative Pronouns:

A demonstrative pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun and specifies its antecedent with emphasis. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

This and these generally refer to what is present, near, just referred to, or about to be referred to; that and those refer to what is more remote in time or place.

Look at this. (Close)

Look at that. (Far)

Look at these. (Close)

Look at those. (Far)