

Name: _____ Date: _____

Verbs - Future Perfect Tense:

The future perfect tense of a verb expresses action or state that is completed at or before a certain future time and is formed by adding "shall have" or "will have" before the past tense of the base verb. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

I shall have left by that time.

You will have kept six by that time.

He will have arrived by Christmas.

She will have eaten by this afternoon.

It will have returned before next week.

We shall have finished before Easter break.

You all will have cleaned the house before she arrives.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Verbs - Future Perfect Tense:

The future perfect tense of a verb expresses action or state that is completed at or before a certain future time and is formed by adding "shall have" or "will have" before the past tense of the base verb. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

They will have baked bread before next

Saturday.

He will have mailed them before next Monday.

She will have beaten eggs before she will add nuts.

It will have receded before the next storm.

We shall have listened by the time it is going to be over.