

Name: _____ Date: _____

Participial Phases: Say It! Write It! Repeat It!

A participial phrase contains a participle and any words needed to modify or complement its meaning.

Present participial phrase (-ing): Using all her strength, she pushed

the door against the winds and secured it.

Thinking of her son, she gave him the last drink.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Participial Phases: Say It! Write It! Repeat It!

A participial phrase contains a participle and any words needed to modify or complement its meaning.

Past participial phrase (-ed): Embarrassed by her delay, she apologized to her friend.

*Eaten by the ages, the book
crumbled in his hand.*

Known to the enemy, he ran.

Felt through the country, the news was joyful.