

Name: _____ Date: _____

Past Perfect Tense:

The past perfect tense of a verb expresses action or state that is completed in the past and is formed by adding "had" before the past tense of the base verb. The past perfect tense indicates that one past action or condition began and ended before another past action started.

Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

I had turned before that corner.

You had worked before graduation.

He had studied by the time they started.

She had soaked them before she rinsed them.

It had sprayed the lawn before he stopped
it.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Past Perfect Tense:

The past perfect tense of a verb expresses action or state that is completed in the past and is formed by adding "had" before the past tense of the base verb. The past perfect tense indicates that one past action or condition began and ended before another past action started.

Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

We had reduced our rates before the sale began.

You all had marched before the last float.

They had crossed the river before the first shot.