

Name: _____ Date: _____

Sentence Construction Action Verbs:

An action verb is a word that expresses the action of the subject of a sentence. Its voice is formed in the active tense.

Jim runs. "Runs" is the action of the subject "Jim".

I eat.

You clean.

He lives.

She runs.

It works.

We eat.

You voted.

They slept.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Sentence Construction Passive Verbs:

An action verb is a word that expresses the action of the subject of a sentence. Its voice is formed in the active tense.

Jim runs. "Runs" is the action of the subject "Jim".

I was served.

You were helped.

He was born.

She was teased.

It was taken.

We were uplifted.

You were teased.

They were happy.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Sentence Construction Active/Passive Verbs:

An action verb is a word that expresses the action of the subject of a sentence. Its voice is formed in the active tense.

Jim runs. "Runs" is the action of the subject "Jim".

Ants move.

Ants were moved.

Balls roll.

Balls were rolled.

Cats eat.

Cats were carried.

Dogs bark.

Dogs were caged.