

Name: _____ Date: _____

Sentence Construction Prepositional Phrase:

A prepositional phrase is a group of words that begins with a preposition and ends with the object of the preposition.

Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

The cat eats quickly on the porch.

A banana ripens fast in a bag.

An apple falls heavily in the grass.

Strong dogs jump high over the fence.

Most dogs bark often during the night.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Sentence Construction Prepositional Phrase:

A prepositional phrase is a group of words that begins with a preposition and ends with the object of the preposition.

Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

Blue skies shine brightly in the summer.

Smart children excel frequently in school.

Kind children rejoice heartily at their success.

These cats prowl nightly in our neighborhood.