

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

act

bang

built

adapt

bar

bump

add

beat

bury

address

bite

catch

adjust

blast

charge

advise

block

chart

aim

blow

chase

answer

broke

check

arrange

buck

choke

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

clap

compute

cut

clash

conduct

dance

climb

construct

dart

clip

consult

dash

collar

control

deal

collect

count

decide

command

crash

deck

complete

crawl

define

compose

create

deliver

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

descend

display

draw

describe

dissect

dress

design

ditch

drill

detect

dive

drink

develop

do

drip

dictate

draft

drop

dig

drag

drown

direct

drain

drug

discard

drape

dry

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

duel

erupt

expose

dunk

escape

extend

ease

examine fade

edge exert

fake

edit

exhale

fall

eject

exit

fan

elevate

expand

fast

enter

explode

fear

equip

explain

feed

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

feel

flap

flip

fend

flash

flit

fight

flatten

float

file

flaunt

flog

fill

flay

flout

find

flee

flush

finger

flick

fly

fix

flinch

force

flag

fling

found

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

fumble

grasp

hammer

furnish

greet

handle

gain

grind

hang

gallop

grip

harass

gather

gripe

haul

get

grow

head

give

guide

help

gnaw

hack

hide

grab

hail

hit

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

hitch

inspect

jolt

hobble

inspire

judge

hoist

install

jump

hold

invade

keel

hover

invent

kick

hug

jab

kill

hurl

jam

kneel

hurtle

jar

knife

inch

jingle

lash

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

lead

log

move

lean

make

nab

leap

march

nag

learn

mark

nail

left

meet

nick

level

mimic

nip

lick

mock

offer

limp

model

order

listen

mourn

pack

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

paddle

paw

pirate

page

peel

pitch

panic

peep

plan

park

pick

play

party

picket

plod

pass

pile

plow

pat

pilot

plunge

patrol

pin

pocket

pause

pinch

poke

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

polish

print

pry

pore

process

pull

pose

program

pump

pounce

project

punch

pout

promote

push

pray

prompt

question

predict

proof

quit

preen

propel

race

present

protect

raid

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

raise

record

relate

rally

recoup

relax

ram

recruit

relent

rattle

redeem

render

rave

reduce

repair

read

reel

repel

realize

refer

report

receive

regain

resign

recline

rejoin

resist

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

resolve

rub

scan

respond

run

scare

restore

rush

scatter

reveal

sail

scold

rip

salute

scoop

rise

sap

scoot

risk

save

score

rob

saw

scour

roll

scale

scout

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

scrape

seal

sew

scrawl

search

shake

scream

seize

shape

screw

select sharpen

scrub

sell

shave

scruff

sense

shear

scuffle

serve

shell

sculpt

set

shield

scuttle

sever

shift

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

shock

sigh

slam

shoot

signal

slap

shorten

sip

slash

shout

sit

slay

shove

size

slide

shovel

skid

slug

show

skim

smack

shun

skip

smear

shut

skirt

smell

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

smuggle

snub

spike

snap

snuff

spin

snare

snuggle

spit

snarl

soak

splice

snatch

sock

split

snicker

soil

spot

sniff

solve

spray

snitch

spear

spread

snoop

spell

spring

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

sprint

startle

stop

spurn

steal

strap

spy

steel

strike

squeak

steer

strip

stack

step

stroke

stagger

stick

struck

stamp

stiffen

stub

stand

stifle

study

start

stomp

stuff

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

stumble

swear

tap

stun

swerve

target

subdue

swim

taste

submit

swing

taunt

suck

swipe

teach

supply

switch

tear

support

tackle

tease

swap

take

telephone

sway

tangle

test

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

thrash

touch

treat

thread

tout

trick

threaten

track

trip

throw

train

trot

tickle

transcribe

try

tie

transfer

tug

tilt

translate

tumble

tip

trap

turn

toss

tread

tutor

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

twist

wade

whirl

type

walk

wiggle

undo

wander

work

unfold

ward

wrench

unite

watch

write

update

wave

yell

usher

weed

yield

utilize

weigh

zap

vent

whip

zip