

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

accelerate

administer

arrange

accuse

advance

arrest

achieve

advise

ascertain

acquire

aim

assault

act

analyze

assemble

adapt

answer

assess

add

anticipate

attack

address

apprehend

attain

adjust

approach

audit

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

avert

broke

charge

bang

buck

chart

bar

budget

chase

beat

built

check

bite

bump

choke

blast

bury

clap

block

bushwhack

clash

blow

calculate

classify

brighten

catch

climb

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

clip

complete

coordinate

clutch

compose

counsel

coach

compute

count

collapse

conduct

cram

collar

conserve

crash

collect

consolidate

crawl

collide

construct

create

command

consult

creep

compile

control

cripple

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

crouch

define

develop

cut

delegate

devise

dance

delineate

diagnose

dart

deliver

dictate

dash

descend

dig

deal

describe

direct

decide

design

discard

deck

detect

discover

deduct

determine

display

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

dissect

draft

drip

distribute

drag

drop

ditch

drain

drown

dive

dramatize

drug

divert

drape

dry

do

draw

duel

dodge

dress

dunk

dominate

drill

ease

douse

drink

edge

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

edit

enter

evict

eject

equip

examine

elevate

erupt

exert

elude

escape

exhale

emerge

establish

exit

endure

estimate

expand

engage evacuate

expedite

enjoin

evade

expel

ensnare

evaluate

explode

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

experiment fall

file

explain

falter

fill

expose

fan

finance

extend

fast

find

extirpate

fear

finger

extract

feed

fix

extricate

feel

flag

fade

fend

flap

fake

fight

flash

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

flatten

float

fumble

flaunt

flog

furnish

flay

flounder

gain

flee

flout

gallop

flick

flush

gather

flinch

fly

generate

fling

force

gesture

flip

formulate

get

flit

found

give

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

gnaw

gripe

hammer

gossip

grope

handle

gouge

grow

hang

grab

growl

harass

grapple

grunt

haul

grasp

guide

head

greet

gyrate

help

grind

hack

hesitate

grip

hail

hide

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

hijack

hurtle

increase

hit

identify

induce

hitch

ignore

inflict

hobble

illustrate

influence

hoist

imitate

inform

hold

implement

inject

hover

improve

injure

hug

improvise

insert

hurl

inch

inspect

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

inspire

inventory

jingle

install

investigate

jolt

instigate

isolate

judge

institute

jab

jump

interchange

jam

keel

interpret

jar

kick

interview

jeer

kidnap

invade

jerk

kill

invent

jimmy

kneel

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

knife

level

make

lash

lick

manage

launch

limp

mangle

lead

listen

march

lean

log

mark

leap

lounge

measure

learn

lunge

meddle

lecture

lurch

mediate

left

maintain

meet

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

mentor

mourn

needle

mimic

move

negotiate

mingle

mumble

nick

mobilize

murder

nip

mock

muster

observe

model

mutilate

obtain

molest

nab

occupy

monitor

nag

offer

motivate

nail

officiate

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

operate

parade

peel

order

paralyze

peep

organize

park

perceive

oversee

party

perform

pack

pass

persuade

paddle

pat

photograph

page

patrol

pick

panic

pause

picket

parachute

paw

pile

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

pilot

plow

pray

pin

plunge

predict

pinch

pocket

preen

pirate

poke

prepare

pitch

polish

prescribe

placate

pore

present

plan

pose

preside

play

pounce

print

plod

pout

process

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

produce

provide

pursue

program

provoke

push

project

pry

question

promote

publicize

quit

prompt

pull

race

proof

pummel

raid

proofread

pump

raise

propel

punch

rally

protect

purchase

ram

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

ransack

record

relate

rattle

recoup

relax

ravage

recruit

relent

rave

redeem

render

read

reduce

repair

realize

reel

repel

receive

refer

report

recline

regain

represent

reconcile

rejoin

repulse

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

research

reveal

run

resign

review

rush

resist

ride

sail

resolve

rip

salute

respond

rise

sap

restore

risk

save

retaliate

rob

saw

retreat

roll

scale

retrieve

rub

scamper

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

scan

scour

sculpt

scare

scout

scuttle

scatter

scrape

seal

scavenge

scrawl

search

schedule

scream

seize

scold

screw

select

scoop

scrub

sell

scoot

scruff

sense

score

scuffle

serve

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

set

shield

show

sever

shift

shun

sew

shiver

shut

shake

shock

sidestep

shape

shoot

sigh

sharpen

shorten

signal

shave

shout

sip

shear

shove

sit

shell

shovel

size

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

skid

slide

snatch

skim

slug

snicker

skip

smack

sniff

skirt

smear

snitch

slacken

smell

snoop

slam

smuggle

snub

slap

snap

snuff

slash

snare

snuggle

slay

snarl

soak

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

sock

splice

squeak

soil

split

stack

solve

spot

stagger

spear

spray

stamp

spell

spread

stand

spike

spring

start

spin

sprint

startle

spit

spurn

steal

splatter

spy

steel

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

steer

strike

subdue

step

strip

submerge

stick

stroke

submit

stiffen

struck

suck

stifle

stub

summon

stomp

study

supervise

stop

stuff

supply

strangle

stumble

support

strap

stun

surrender

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

survey

swing

taunt

suspend

swipe

teach

swagger

switch

tear

swallow

synthesize

tease

swap

tackle

telephone

sway

take

test

swear

tap

thrash

swerve

target

thread

swim

taste

threaten

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

throw

train

trot

tickle

transcribe

try

tie

transfer

tuck

tilt

translate

tug

tip

trap

tumble

toss

tread

turn

touch

treat

tutor

tout

trick

twist

track

trip

type

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

undertake

vacate

ward

undo

vanish

watch

unfold

vanquish

wave

unify

vault

wedge

unite

vent

weed

untangle

violate

weigh

update

wade

whip

usher

walk

whirl

utilize

wander

whistle

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitive Verb List:

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object. Say it! Write it! Repeat it!

wiggle

yield

withdraw

zap

work

zip

wreck

wrench

wrestle

write

yank

yell