

Transitive Verb List

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object.

accelerate	beat	command
accuse	bite	commandeer
achieve	blast	communicate acquire	block	compile
act	blow	complete
adapt	brighten	compose
add	broke	compute
address	buck	conduct
adjust	budget	conserve
administer	built	consolidate advance	bump	construct advise	bury	consult aim	bushwhack	control
analyze	calculate	coordinate answer	catch	counsel
anticipate	charge	count apprehend	chart	cram
approach	chase	crash
appropriate	check	crawl arrange	choke	create
arrest	clap	creep
ascertain	clash	cripple assault	classify	crouch assemble	climb	cut
assess	clip	dance
attack	clutch	dart
attain	coach	dash
audit	collapse	deal
avert	collar	decide
bang	collect	deck
bar	collide	deduct

Transitive Verb List

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object.

define	drape	evaluate delegate	draw	evict
delineate	dress	examine deliver	drill	exert
descend	drink	exhale
describe	drip	exit
design	drop	expand
detect	drown	expedite
determine	drug	expel
develop	dry	explode
devise	duel	experiment
diagnose	dunk	explain
dictate	ease	expose
dig	edge	extend
direct	edit	extirpate
discard	eject	extract
discover	elevate	extricate display	elude	fade
dissect	emerge	fake
distribute	endure	fall
ditch	engage	falter
dive	enjoin	fan
divert	ensnare	fast
do	enter	fear
dodge	equip	feed
dominate	erupt	feel
douse	escape	fend
draft	establish	fight
drag	estimate	file
drain	evacuate	fill
dramatize	evade	finance

Transitive Verb List

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object.

find	get	hitch
finger	give	hobble
fix	gnaw	hoist
flag	gossip	hold
flap	gouge	hover
flash	grab	hug
flatten	grapple	hurl
flaunt	grasp	hurtle
flay	greet	identify
flee	grind	ignore
flick	grip	illustrate
flinch	gripe	imitate
fling	grope	implement
flip	grow	improve
flit	growl	improvise
float	grunt	inch
flog	guide	increase
flounder	gyrate	induce flout	hack	inflict
flush	hail	influence
fly	hammer	inform
force	handle	inject
formulate	hang	injure
found	harass	insert
fumble	haul	inspect
furnish	head	inspire
gain	help	install
gallop	hesitate	instigate
gather	hide	institute
generate	hijack	interchange gesture	hit	interpret

Transitive Verb List

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object.

interview	lick	muster
invade	limp	mutilate
invent	listen	nab
inventory	log	nag
investigate	lounge	nail
isolate	lunge	needle
jab	lurch	negotiate
jam	maintain	nick
jar	make	nip
jeer	manage	observe
jerk	mangle	obtain
jimmy	manipulate	occupy jingle	march	offer
jolt	mark	officiate
judge	measure	operate
jump	meddle	order
keel	mediate	organize
kick	meet	oversee
kidnap	mentor	pack
kill	mimic	paddle
kneel	mingle	page
knife	mobilize	panic
lash	mock	parachute
launch	model	parade
lead	molest	paralyze
lean	monitor	park
leap	motivate	party
learn	mourn	pass
lecture	move	pat
left	mumble	patrol
level	murder	pause

Transitive Verb List

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object.

paw	prepare	rally
peel	prescribe	ram
peep	present	ransack
perceive	preside	rattle
perform	print	ravage
persuade	process	rave
photograph	produce	read pick	program	realize
picket	project	receive
pile	promote	recline
pilot	prompt	recommend
pin	proof	reconcile
pinch	proofread	record
pirate	propel	recoup
pitch	protect	recruit
placate	provide	redeem
plan	provoke	reduce
play	pry	reel
plod	publicize	refer
plow	pull	regain
plunge	pummel	rejoin
pocket	pump	relate
poke	punch	relax
polish	purchase	relent
pore	pursue	render
pose	push	repair
pounce	question	repel
pout	quit	report
pray	race	represent
predict	raid	repulse
preen	raise	research

Transitive Verb List

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object.

resign	scold	shield
resist	scoop	shift
resolve	scoot	shiver
respond	score	shock
restore	scour	shoot
retaliate	scout	shorten
retreat	scrape	shout
retrieve	scrawl	shove
reveal	scream	shovel
review	screw	show
ride	scrub	shun
rip	scruff	shut
rise	scuffle	sidestep
risk	sculpt	sigh
rob	scuttle	signal
roll	seal	sip
rub	search	sit
run	seize	size
rush	select	skid
sail	sell	skim
salute	sense	skip
sap	serve	skirt
save	set	slacken
saw	sever	slam
scale	sew	slap
scamper	shake	slash
scan	shape	slay
scare	sharpen	slide
scatter	shave	slug
scavenge	shear	smack
schedule	shell	smear

Transitive Verb List

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object.

smell	spy	suck
smuggle	squeak	summarize snap	stack	summon
snare	stagger	supervise snarl	stamp	supply
snatch	stand	support
snicker	start	surrender
sniff	startle	survey
snitch	steal	suspend
snoop	steel	swagger
snub	steer	swallow
snuff	step	swap
snuggle	stick	sway
soak	stiffen	swear
sock	stifle	swerve
soil	stomp	swim
solve	stop	swing
spear	strangle	swipe
spell	strap	switch
spike	strike	synthesize spin	strip	systematize
spit	stroke	tackle
splatter	struck	take
splice	stub	tap
split	study	target
spot	stuff	taste
spray	stumble	taunt
spread	stun	teach
spring	subdue	tear
sprint	submerge	tease
spurn	submit	telephone

Transitive Verb List

A transitive verb is an action verb that requires the addition of an object to complete its meaning. "Bell invented phones." The verb "invented" requires a word to complete its meaning. The object of a transitive word is not always expressed but some word different from the subject can be made the object.

test	understand	wreck
thrash	undertake	wrench thread	undo	wrestle
threaten	unfold	write
throw	unify	yank
tickle	unite	yell
tie	untangle	yield
tilt	update	zap
tip	usher	zip
toss	utilize
touch	vacate
tout	vanish
track	vanquish
train	vault
transcribe	vent
transfer	violate
translate	wade
trap	walk
tread	wander
treat	ward
trick	watch
trip	wave
trot	wedge
try	weed
tuck	weigh
tug	whip
tumble	whirl
turn	whistle
tutor	wiggle
twist	withdraw
type	work	